Opening Prayer

Father Paul Standish

Lord Jesus, at this moment we entrust Maureen into your loving hands. We give you thanks for all the blessings of her life, and for the love and friendship we shared together. Send your Holy Spirit to deepen our faith in your presence and fill us with hope that your promises may be fulfilled for our sister - the joy of resurrection and a place in your Father's house. May Mary and all the saints pray for us that we may continue to be united in your love.

Liturgy of the Word

A reading from the letter of St Paul to the Philippians

Our homeland is in heaven, and from heaven comes the saviour we are waiting for, the Lord Jesus Christ, and he will transfigure these wretched bodies of ours into copies of his glorious body. He will do that by the same power with which he can subdue the whole universe.

Moment of Reflection

Paper Roses - Marie Osmond

Reading

A reading from the second letter of St Paul to Timothy

If we die with him, then we shall live with him. Remember the Good News that I carry, 'Jesus Christ risen from the dead, sprung from the race of David'; it is on account of this that I have my own hardships to bear, even to being chained like a criminal —but they cannot chain up God's news. So I bear it all for the sake of those who are chosen so that in the end they may have the salvation that is in Christ Jesus and the eternal glory that comes with it. Here is a saying that you can rely on: If we have died with him, then we shall live with him. If we hold firm, then we shall reign with him. If we disown him, then he will disown us. We may be unfaithful, but he is always faithful, for he cannot disown his own self.

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy name,
thy kingdom come,
thy will be done,
on earth, as it is in Heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread;
And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
Amen.

There's No One Quite Like Grandma - St. Winifred's School Choir

Prayer of Commendation

Into your hands, Father of mercies, we commend our sister in the sure and certain hope that, together with all who have died in Christ, she will rise with him on the last day. We give you thanks for the blessings which you bestowed upon Maureen in this life, they are signs to us of your goodness and of our fellowship with the saints in Christ. Merciful Lord, turn toward us and listen to our prayers: open the gates of paradise to our sister and help us who remain to comfort one another with assurances of faith until we all meet in Christ and are with you and with our sister forever.

Closing Music
